Our Project

Our project was to help the women at the Genesis House by donating. We donated nonperishable foods and hygienic items. The women there were so kind and accepting of our help.

About Genesis House

The Genesis House is trying to raise awareness of sexual and domestic violence, while helping keep women safe who have already been in an abusive relationship.

Community Changers

We do not feel like we directly changed the community, but we did help some women get by for a another week or so. We overall wanted to inspire other to donate and volunteer, so that way, all of those others together can change community.
